EFFECTS OF THE DROUTH IN GEORGIA. -The worsh weeks past this section of the State s been visited by a long continued and very vere drouth. What have been its effects of by the following circumstance, which has been related to us by the best authority: On the plantation of Colonel H. D. D. Twi cgs, situated on the Savannah River, about ten miles week a tract of thirty seres of very fine couton its foliage was green and luxuriant; its growth was vigorous; it was as tall as a man's shou. der; and the stalks were lo ded with truit from top to bottom. Altogether it was as fine s on of cotton as could be found anywhere and a very large yield was confidently expect ed by its owner. A few das since however, began to feel the effects of the drouth, and in last Saturday it presented a m sanchity spec-tacle. It had lost its healthmose its greennese and luxuriance of foliage, and looked like field of what th planters term bastard out Worse than this nearly every form had m the stalks, and lay in he ps in the alleys between the rows-so that from the tract of thirty acres not more than one bale of

An extra meeting of Council was held last night, at which were present, the Mayor, Aldermen E. W. M. and T. J. Mackey, Collins, Geddings, Greece, Voigt, Barrow, Cunningham, white, and Hampton, L. F. Wall, Smail, E. P. Wall, McKinlay, colored.

Council was called to order at half-past 8

A communication from the Board of Commis siovers of the Almshouse notifying Council that the insurance on the Almshouse had expired and recommending that it be insured for $50, 000, was read, and the matter referred to the Committee on Public Buildings.

Petition of J. F. Schroeder was referred to Committee on Licenses.

The ordinance "to declare certain colored fire companies a portion of the Fire Departmont, &c.," was ratified.

Potition of the officers and members of the Promptitude Fire Company, requesting that they be included among the colored companies to receive benefits under the ordinance "to declare certain companies a portion of the Fire Deportment," was read by Alderman E. W. M. Mackey, and, on motion of Alderman T. J. Maskey, was laid upon the table.

Alderman T. J. Mackey road a petition from large number of merchants, praying Council to remove the tax upon rice and cotton, and cil he would introduce an ordinance providing for the removal of the objectionable tax. The potition was received as information and further consideration postponed until the next meeting.

THE POLICE BILL. Alderman T. J. Mackey moved that the bill to reorganize and regulate the police force of the city" be put upon its second reading. Alderman Voigt thought that the bill "to Alderman Wall, colored, moved to adjourn. Alderman Collins seconded it, but afterward withdrew it.

Alderman Small, colored. I second de moion to adjourn, and I move dat it be prest. The motion was carried—9 ayes and 4 nays. Council then adjourned. ATTEMPT TO BURN A DWELLING .- About half-past four o'clock, yesterday morning, an atempt was made to burn the residence of Dr J. S. Buist, No. 205 Meeting-street. Yester day afternoon Assistant Engineer Alexander had an investigation, when the following testimony was elicited:

Dr. J. Somors Buist testified that he wa awakened about half-past four o'clock by the inging of his door bell. He arose, and found that a policeman was ringing it. The police-man informed him that his premises was on fire. An examination showed that some hay and empty boxes were burning under the the flamer. The place where the fire originat ed is enclosed, and was locked on Saturday tast, and was secure at 11 o'clock Monday night. The watch dog was left on the piazza on retiring. When aroused by the policeman, the dog was gone and the gate open.

Charlotte Lawton, colored, who lives on the premises, testified that she was awakened about half-past four o'clock, and heard the explosion of a match. A quarter of an hour afterward she heard the bell ringing. She got up and saw the smoke in the yard.

Wm. Lawton, colored. Charlotto's husband, testified that at 9 P. M. Monray night, he locked up the Doctor's office, (which is a short distance from the bouse,) and left a box of matches on the mantelpiece, and put the key of the office in the usual place. After the fire he found the box of matches missing and the office key laying on the door sill.

Other evidence showed that by had been carried from the stable and placed under the piazza; that up to a short time ago there were two keys to the door of the enclosed space under the piazza, but one had been lost and since the loss articles stowed under there had

Mr. Alexander decided that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

CRUMBS.—It is stated that one of Collector Clark's employees at the Custombouse has to employ a cierk to do the work he is paid to do. Alderman Geddings, Small and Barrow didu't attend the Mayors supper M nday night. A gang of two hundred and ten able-bodied colored laborers, from up the country, left the Mills House and Litterly of Nickerson's Hole! City last night on the Dictaior, to work on the Brun wick Kailroad.

The lower portion of the building formerly

The building in course of erection at the foot of Broad-street was entered Monday night, and large quantity of carpenters' tools stolen. SUIT AGAINST CAPTAIN HENDRICES FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT.—The new born zeal of the police authorities is commendable when not carried to an excess; but the sortic made on the merchants and others who cumber the side walks has not been tempered with discretion. Charges were recently preferred against Broad-street broker for placing his shutters or the sidewalk. He was unable to attend the Mayor's court, and his clerk responded to the summons. Mayor Pillsbury imposed a fine of two dollars, and the clerk, an irresponsible party, was detained in custody about three hours because the fine was not promptly paid. He appealed to a lawyor, who was informed by Captain Heudricks that it was by his authority No effort has been made to collect the fine, but a suit has been entered against Captain Hendricks for false imprisonment.

The Flour Question.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. Can Mr. Caulfield deny having stated he would govern himself by a standard, if the lour merchants would adopt such for him? If the flour merchants did not meet as a body, what did they meet as?

If he means, in his communication, to assert mous in the adoptibility also, not were not manifecommended to asserts what is not true.

mous in the adoptible who mot were not unanirecommended to asserts what is not true.

He states that he has inspected the grades referred to, and pronounces them below the standard. Will he inform the public what his standard is, and where he got it?

Would it not be advisable for Mr. Cauffield to assume the duties of a schoolboy, for a time, to enable him to rightly construe a sentence?
The writer did not advocate abblishing the office, and if not over "twenty-five" he can boast of more years' experience in flour than Mr. C. can weeks. "Flour merchant," like the inspector, was not honored with a voice in the deliberations of the flour merchants. If that is any consolution to him, he is welcome to it.

The flour merchants individually and collectively repudiate the idea of dictation which Mr. C. labors hard to impress on the public mind.

In conclusion, no such conflict of opinion having occurred between the flour merchants and any of the inspector's predecessors, the public might safely suspect, with the writer, that the secret of the whole difficulty lies in the present incumbent's utter incapsoitly to properly discharge the duties of the office, which he feels, but does not know how to remedy. This closes the subject of flour inspection, by

The Newly Appeinted Pilots,

CHARLESTON, S. C., August 31.

CHARLESTON, S. C., August 31.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

In the DAILY News of this morning we see a letter from the "Newly Appointed Pilots." in which they ask why the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce did not give the names of the pilots who had been complained of as incompetent. We suppose the respectable residence who signed the report for the Chamber of Commerce knew what they were about, and can take care of themselves when any responsible persons ask them for information. But we, the old pilots, also know something about this mater, and knew that the "newly appointed piluts" could not pass an examination before competent judges. Who are these new pilots? We believe that they are Charles Camps. Henry Behlerf, Frederick Fisher and Charles Thompson, and four colored men: — Moultrie, lieve that they are Charles Camps. Henry Bebiert, Frederick Fisher and Charles Thompson, and four colored men: — Moultrie, Robert Davis, Edward Jonkins, and George Wilson. Rehtert and Thompson have been to sea, but we doubt that they can tell the rise and fall of the tides. Their experience as pilots has been limited, and it is not their fault if they do not know much about pilotage. Camps has been to sea, but not in a squarerigged vessel. If he thinks himself a competent pilot, will be go before the old bard and stand an examination? Fisher is a very young man and n t quick in learning. A few months ago he could not bux the compass and we pronounce him to be entirely incompotent, so much eo, that we would not trust him in charge of a pilot boat. Of the colored pilots we do not know much. They are all very filterate, and two of the four bave not been in a pilot boat for (wenty years, The public may judge from this whether those "newly appointed pilots" are fit to take charge of vessels coming into and going out of Charleston.
